01 / GEOGRAPHY

THE DELTA ENGINE

Three of Asia's great rivers meet here and fan into the largest delta on Earth. Water is not a feature of Bangladesh — it is the architecture.

02 / ORIGIN STORY

BORN OF LANGUAGE. FORGED IN 1971

A nation first defended its mother tongue, then its right to exist. Four dates define the arc.

> "আমার সোনার বাংলা"
>
> — THE GOLDEN BENGAL

1947

PARTITION

East Bengal becomes part of Pakistan — two wings separated by 1,600 km.

1952

LANGUAGE MOVEMENT

21 February: students give their lives for Bangla. Today it is UNESCO International Mother Language Day.

26 MAR 1971

INDEPENDENCE PROCLAIMED

A nine-month liberation war begins.

16 DEC 1971

VICTORY

Bangladesh emerges as an independent republic.

03 / THE PEOPLE

174 MILLION VOICES

174M

PEOPLE · 8TH MOST POPULOUS NATION

One of the world's densest populations — and one of its youngest, with a median age around 28.

01 ONE LANGUAGE

Bangla is spoken by virtually the whole country; it is also one of the world's most-spoken native languages.

02 A DAY FOR THE WORLD

21 February is UNESCO's International Mother Language Day — a Bangladeshi gift to global culture.

03 WORDS AS IDENTITY

Tagore, Nazrul and a living oral tradition of Baul song, poetry and storytelling.

COLOUR IS A VERB

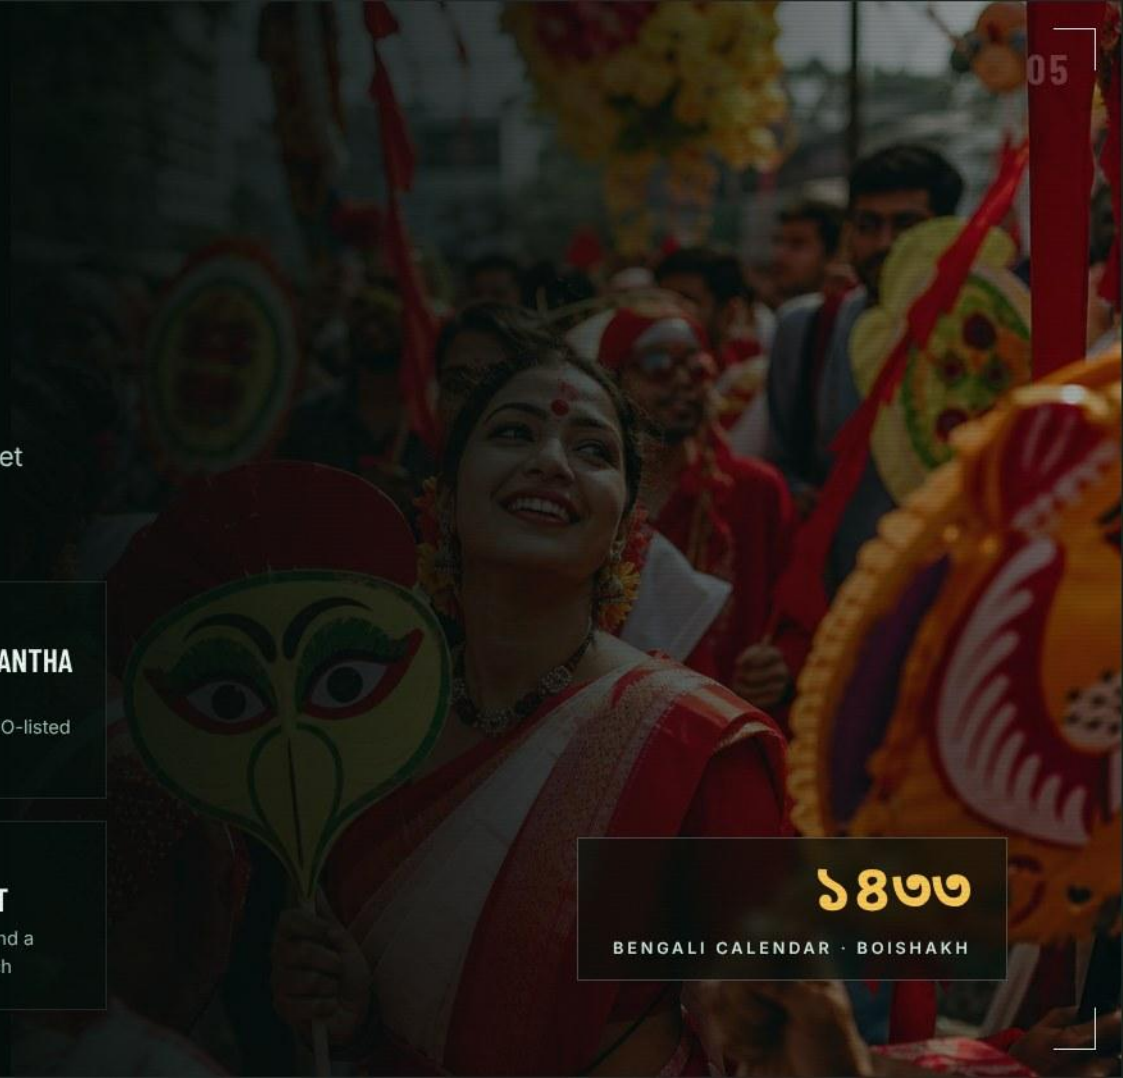

Festivals here are not performances. The whole street becomes the stage.

01
POHELA BOISHAKH
Bengali New Year · red & white · masks, processions, fairs

02
JAMDANI & NAKSHI KANTHA
Handwoven muslin and embroidered quilts, UNESCO-listed craft

03
BAUL & NAZRUL GEETI
Mystic folk songs carried voice to voice for generations

04
EID, BOATS & CRICKET
Family tables, river races and a nation that stops for a match

02

COX'S BAZAR

~120 km of unbroken sandy beach on the Bay of Bengal

03

SYLHET TEA HILLS

Rolling green estates, mist and the country's famous cha

04

HAOR WETLANDS

Seasonal inland seas that flood, bloom and feed millions

07 / THE TABLE

A TABLE FULL OF STORIES

Rice and fish are the grammar; mustard, chilli and centuries of trade are the vocabulary.

ILISH	Hilsa · the national fish, best in monsoon
KACCHI BIRYANI	Rice, meat and saffron, Dhaka style
FUCHKA	The street-side burst of tamarind & chilli
PANTA BHAT	Fermented rice, the Pohela Boishakh classic
MISHTI & CHA	Sweet milk confections and endless tea

08 / THE TEST

BUILT TO BEND, NOT BREAK

A delta nation lives with water. Its answer has been engineering, early warning and extraordinary social solidarity.

THE PRESSURE

- Monsoon flooding
- Cyclones
- Sea-level rise
- River erosion
- Climate displacement
- Rohingya humanitarian response

100+

CYCLONE SHELTERS & A VOLUNTEER WARNING NETWORK

Deaths from major cyclones have fallen dramatically over three decades — a globally studied adaptation story.
